

Eulalia King

Biography

Singer, songwriter, speaker, Bible teacher and worship leader, Eulalia King, passionately shares the living hope found in Jesus Christ alone. Often described as a 'blessing to those she encounters' and 'an outstanding musician as both a singer and a songwriter', she exudes a genuine love for God and His children and enthusiasm for His kingdom that is contagious.

As a worship leader and singer, Eulalia seeks to usher others into the presence of the living God with songs of heartfelt praise and sincere worship. As a speaker and Bible teacher, she boldly declares the inerrant and life-giving Word of God, with reverence and compassion, always striving to 'rightly divide' the Word of Truth.

A professional Christian songwriter since 1999, Eulalia has won several national songwriting awards and has co-written songs with Dove Award winners Babbie Mason and Dwight Liles. Her songs have been recorded by such artists as Janet Paschal, Vicki Yohe, The Hoskins Family and numerous other national artists. She has just completed her third CD recording project entitled, SANCTUARY. This focus of this project is to usher the believer into the holy and joyful presence of the Lord Jesus Christ.

She writes in all genres of music including Contemporary Christian, Traditional Gospel, Southern Gospel, Urban Pop, Praise/Worship, as well as Children's music having presented her material in workshops all over the country including the Gospel Music Workshop of America (GMWA), The Gospel Music Association (GMA), The National Convention of Gospel Choirs and Choruses, The Babbie Mason Music Seminar in Atlanta, Georgia and The Christian Artists Seminar in Estes Park, Colorado to name a few.

Eulalia has served in various ministry leadership capacities within the church and the community including Promotion and Community Events Coordinator at the College of Biblical Studies, Director of Music, Praise and Worship Leader, Children's Worship Training Director, Discipleship Instructor and Cell Group Leader.

Eulalia is a member of Houston's First Baptist Church, where she serves as the Worship Builders Coordinator, an alternative worship service for children ages 3 – 12, and as a member of Beth Moore's Houston based Worship Team. In full-time music ministry since 2000, she also serves at The Nehemiah Center and Yellowstone Academy in various music and ministry capacities.

Whether during a Sunday morning worship service, citywide Bible study, women's retreat or national ministry conference, with audiences of fifty to five thousand, Eulalia seeks to encourage, affirm and inspire others to pursue Christ with abandonment and to bear witness to His redeeming power. Eulalia is singly devoted to Christ and strives to live a life that pleases Him in all she says and does.

BOOKING INFORMATION:

Eulalia King

P. O. Box 80

Stafford, TX 77497 - 0080

HYPERLINK "mailto:eulalia.king@sbcglobal.net" eulalia.king@sbcglobal.net

281-561-0206